

From Farm to Finish

RANCHING OPPORTUNITIES

Conference

February 16th, 2012
Olds College
$25

Ideas and Opportunities for Growing your Business

February 16th at Olds College in the Alumni Centre, lunch and tradeshow are included.

Discover new ways to manage your livestock, Explore options for marketing your product and Learn about the challenges and achievements of successful Ranchers.

Schedule

- * Learn about Market Outlook for Farmers and Ranchers with Jerry Klassen
- * Hands on Breakout Sessions
 1. Low Stress Roping and Doctoring - TBA
 2. Stock Dogs for Cattle Handling - TBA
 3. Fluerd (mixed species grazing) bonding cattle to sheep to reduce predator losses - TBA
- * Marketing Panel: Sobeyes, Canada Gold, Jerry Klassen, Farmers Market Representative
- * Yearling Contracts & Shrink - Leon Specht
- * Discover how successful producer Steve Kenyon manages his business and farm

Register today or for more information contact Ken Lewis at Red Deer County at
Phone: 403-342-8653 or by e-mail: klewis@rdcounty.ca - The registration deadline is February 10th

Partners: Olds College, Foothills Forage and Grazing Association, Mountain View County, Clearwater County, M.D. of Bighorn, Rocky View County, County of Kneehill, Red Deer County, Counties of Wetaskiwin & Leduc, Wheatland County & Alberta Agriculture.